JUSTICE—BLOOD—MONEY

There were three cardinal points in the famous Rhineland case, which was recently tried in New York: Justice, Blood and Money.

The courts representing justice had to be appealed to in order to help settle a badly mixed affair. Blood was an important factor because it involved a colored driver's daughter, who had Negro blood in her veins, and that of the side of the proud blood of the old Huguenot family of the East. Money was an important factor because the Rhinelanders had millions. Otherwise, the case would have never attracted passing notice.

The jury in the case, rendered its decision in favor of Mrs. Rhineland, the girl, that Alice Beatrice Jones-Rhineland, the heir of the old Huguenot family of that name.

Persons are said to have justice when they receive their just dues. It is the consensus of opinion that Mrs. Rhineland received her just dues in this case and remains the lawfully wedded wife of Leonard Kip Rhineland, the heir of the old Huguenot family of that name.

In thinking of the even handed justice given this colored girl in the State of New York, we cannot but realize how fortunate it was for her that she did not live in Mississippi or some other southern state. Had Alice Jones lived in Mississippi and attracted the attention of Kip Rhineland, or any other white man, as often happens down there, she could not have married him. He could have debauched her, lived with her as his concubine, and even been the father of children by her, which often happens, but she would have been denied any action in court for there is an intermarriage law which prohibits Negroes and whites from marrying, yet there is nothing to prevent them from enjoying marital relations, establishing a home and bearing children. There are a number of colored women living with white men over the south, but they cannot get justice and legalize their marriage, nor properly name their children. Therefore, Alice Jones was fortunate in having New York for her home instead of Mississippi. And now that she has been declared the legal wife of Kip Rhineland, she can go another step further and secure a divorce from him with an allowance that will take care of her the remainder of her life. And justice again will have been meted out.

Blood does not always control ones love. While the proud blood of the old Huguenot family, one of the most exclusive in the East, ran through the veins of Kip, the dash and fire in the eyes of this colored girl eliminated the call of the blood. While a member of this old exclusive family, he was persona non grata with the young ladies of his set. Altho Alice fell for him, the Negro race says that he is not good for this race, even, he is not good enough for ours and we cannot accept him, together with the other girls married him. We are as proud of the pure blood of our race as his father is of his and if there is to be intermarriage let it be of the best and not the cast-offs.

The prominence given the case was due to the Rhinelanders behind the thousands of colored women who are married to white men and living happily with them in this northland of ours. There is no how much about it for there is not the vast amount of money involved. Money is a blessing or a curse, according to the use made of it. Money truly talked in this case but not quite loud enough to be heard.

The interest in this case was national. More than half a million words were wired from New York to the various newspapers over the country, relating the progress of the Rhineland case. Blood and money were involved and justice was sought to settle the conflict. Justice won and blood and money must acquiesce thereafter.

Not sympathy but justice; not alms but a man's chance; not set apart, but a part of the government just as other citizens are what we really want. We ask no more and we will not be satisfied with less.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It was long and covered a multitude of things. It covered or touched upon many specific questions which affect our national life. The World-Craft, waterways, railroads and coal mines all came in for their share. These, of course, should interest the American people alike. But, somehow, we are particularly interested in those which affect the colored people. We are particularly interested in those which affect the colored people. We are particularly interested in those which affect the colored people.

We admit he said some nice things about us. He also said that those who do not believe in the colored people should have some weight and influence. But did he say enough?

We note under the caption of most of the subjects touched upon by the President, he made recommendations. But when it came to the case of the Negro, he simply made some statements about the present status of the colored people.

If the President had been making a public speech and used the same language with reference to the colored people as he did in his message to Congress, it would have been fine and we would have been the first to say, huzzah! But a message to the highest law-making body of the country, which is supposed to be a guide for national legislation, surely ought to have carried a little more weight and should have been a little more to the point.

Of course, the words "point" and "weight" may need interpretation, depending altogether on who is under the weight, and whose case it is at the bottom of the public opinion. We speak in the vein and thought of the colored people.

We think, at times like these, it is no time to use weasel words in dealing with our case. We are under a strain. When the President says we have made progress as a race beyond belief, we look up in his face and cry, "Triller! Although we have made wonderful progress, we are still under a strain. What we now want is immediate relief."

Mr. President, now you act in our behalf?

A DEFENSE FUND

We hear much about a fund for this and a fund for that these days. All of which, no doubt are good and serve their purpose well. But to our mind, there is no fund so important as the one for the colored people are concerned, as that of a DEFENSE FUND.

It so happens, in a government like this of ours, that there comes a time when one's rights must be defended by law. This is particularly and specifically true with the Negroes of this country. Rights must be defended by law. Rights must be defended by law. Rights must be defended by law.

among us. Surely, we are "wide awake." We can think of nothing dearer to a people in this life, than that of the enjoyment of the full rights of citizenship. We can picture nothing more glorious than to see a man of color stand, as it were, in the gates of a city, clothed with the rights of "citizen"—See? How can you, as men and women, sit quietly by and see others enjoy this right, and at the same time, see it being denied you and yours daily?

But citizenship is precious. It is worth fighting for and it is worth dying for. Most assuredly, it is worth a few dollars. You cannot make a successful fight without money.

The local branch National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is the logical agency through which to make a fight. We all see the need. But it is written: "None is so blind as he who will not see."

Mrs. Lawton Rebuked For Her Speech Against Lincoln Before Daughters Of Confed.

By Preston News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9.—Following publication of Mrs. Lawton's speech before the South Carolina Daughters of the Confederacy, in which she denounced Abraham Lincoln as a man devoid of high principles, The Washington Evening Star rebukes this "Daughter of Confederacy" as follows:

While most of the average citizen, learned or unlearned, of pioneer blood or not, on Ellis Island, think of the malice of a woman who could so easily walk up to the Lincoln Memorial and splattered its portals with a dogmatic and unbecomingly outrageous and swiftly publishable as that act would be, it is only the faintest degree of comprehension that of him or her, who finds in the heart to besmear the memory of an American whose country and whose children are recognized all over the globe, memory of which the great South American, prize the very true American, is but the other side of a visible symbol.

When we elected president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy recently told the convention of that organization, that we were glad that Abraham Lincoln had no thought of kindness when he signed the emancipation proclamation, we were not in freeing the negroes was to have the latter rise up and attack the South. The Confederate troops were compelled to return for the protection of their families.

This Southern woman, fortunately for her sex and her fellow citizens of the South, does not express the opinion of that section, nor is she likely to promote the popularity of her own race, but she is a woman who has done much good. She may be entitled to hold such belief as she may wish, but she should uphold the propriety to say the least of voicing it publicly. The Civil War ended the era of the great divide to both sides and to the leaders on both sides. However mistaken the opinions of one or the other may have been, the followers of the other to be, they nevertheless, made a practice to give good will to each other and to their representatives. This practice has grown until now, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, as proud of the good name and fame of all the leaders in that long struggle at the time of the war, stands the name of Abraham Lincoln, the last, the best, the highest, the noblest, the most charitable, the non-malicious.

SOUTHERN NEWSPAPER PROVOKES RACE HATE

Associated Negro Press

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 9.—Colored residents of this city are incensed by the recent innovation in headlines of the local News and Observer, which claims that the newspaper is adding to a long series of insults by permitting the word "darkey" in headlines in referring to members of the Negro race, and that such things are the cause of the difficulties which have arisen between Negroes and whites in this district.

Baptist Minister Praises Chandi, Indian Leader

Preston News Service

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 9.—In an address before several hundred Baptists here, Rev. J. W. Wilkey, pastor of the Hyde Park Baptist Church of Chicago, lauded the work of Chandi, the non-cooperation leader in India, saying he was more like Jesus today than Chandi.

"The two main things today that impress me in our country and the United States are the American Race Problem, as it impresses the Indian people, and the serious blow American prestige has suffered in India because of the Immigration laws."

WEBSTER GROVES TO FLOAT SCHOOL BONDS

Preston News Service

On Tuesday, December 12 the people of Webster Groves, Mo., will vote for bonds to finish the new Frank Hamner School High School and establish a new Douglas High School for colored. The city of Webster Groves has practically no bonded indebtedness and for that reason no money has been developed against the bond issue.

The new high school will be the only one of its kind for colored in St. Louis County and marks a distinct educational advance for the colored residents of Webster Groves.

Those voting "YES" for the new bond issue will cast their vote at the Douglas School, Holladay and Fox avenues.

NOTICE

All children living in the city who have been denied admission to the public schools or Summer High School, are notified that if they are not registered by December 15, 1925, they are requested to "send their names to the St. Louis Board of Education, 2312-14 Market Street."

CONFIRMS $3,850 AWARD FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND

EAST, ST. LOUIS, Ill., Dec. 9.

The findings of the Illinois Compensation Commission which 2 years ago ordered a $3,850 award in favor of Mrs. Alice Haines for the death of her husband from a mineral poisoning at the George Nathan Paint Co., was confirmed last week in the Circuit Court at Belleville, Ill. Louis Bernstetter was on the bench. Attorneys Holly and Hendricks were Mrs. Haines' lawyers.

Says Negro Leads Rifts

Associated Negro Press

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—Much of the success of the Rifts, fighting against the French and Spanish war, was due to the leadership of Col. E. Alexander Powell, author and war correspondent, who in an address before the 22nd regiment in this city, asserted that the Rift machine guns are being used by the Negro people, a former member of the Eight Illinois Infantry. Col. Powell said that his information was given him by a French intelligence officer.

WILL OF WEALTHY D. C. WOMAN IS PROBATED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9.

Under the will of John W. Griggs of New York, the will of his mother, Mrs. Sarah E. Griggs, who died October 11, 1925, has been admitted to probate. Atty. Chas. S. Hill filed the petition. Bond was fixed $20,000.

The will gives Mrs. Griggs' entire personal belongings amounting to approximately $17,000 to her son, Geo. Sherman Griggs of 633 T Street, Northwest. A daughter, Mrs. James P. Brown, received two lots in trust. All other real property is to be divided among the three children, each to a stepson. Frederick Griggs; $700 to Mrs. Bell Pratt Griggs; $700 to Mrs. John Griggs; one half of the remainder for a trust for Mrs. Sarah Brown and the rest to her son, Geo. Sherman.

WALTER WHITE AMONG WRITERS FOR $1,500,000 RADICAL PUBLICATION

Will Deal With Topics Of The Times

In A Frank, Open And Studious Fashion

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Walter P. White, author of "The Fire in the Flint," is listed among a group of noted writers as Carl Sandberg, Sherwood Anderson and Eugene O'Neal who will be contributing editors of a new radical magazine, and letters according to the announcement Monday of James Rorty one of the editors.

The magazine will be called The New Masses, according to the publisher, and will be published for the first three years has been underwritten by the American Fund for Public Service.

At the expiration of that period the magazine is expected to pay its own way. The fund for the publication is said to total $1,500,000. Its first issue is expected to make its appearance in about two weeks.

The new book will be known as The New Masses, according to the publisher, and will contain poetry, short stories, book reviews, dramatic and movie criticism, fiction, and other national events, cartoons, serious drawings and sketches. There will be no editorial and no editorial will avoid all sterile form-mongering but will encourage nevertheless, all bold and new writing.

"We are through forever with the picked chicken bones and quackery of the art world, with the might and roses and the tiresome under that make up the day's work of the editors and writers of America," the editor of the forthcoming publication declared.

DRUNKEN PIG GIVES LUMBER CREW FRIGHT

HATTIESBURG, Miss., Dec. 9.

A hog wobbled through the J. J. Huggins Lumber Co. yard here today and gave the lumber crew a fright for fear of rabies that they had a deputy sheriff who followed the porker's troubles differently and started out to find the animal.

The result was a 100-pound still cleverly coupled up with the staff of a deputy sheriff. The hog had stumbled into a bucket of "sour mash" from which corn was being fed to the hogs.

No one claimed the hog, but he is a fingerprint expert as well as hog diagnostician and that he saw signs of opportunity on the hog.

GUGGENHEIM FELLOWSHIPS TO BE AWARDED IN 1926

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The establishment of the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, 1925 for the year 1926 and return September 1, 1926.

AX WELDER ACCIDENTALLY KILLS BROTHER

MAGNOLIA, Ark., Dec. 9.

Monday morning on the farm of John Heath, three miles east of here, the oldest child of Sam Heath, a well-to-do tenant, was almost instantly killed when he stooped to pick up a hammer which he had dropped, which his seven-year-old brother was chopping wood. The ax came down on the child's head, cutting deep gash in the top and penetrating his brain. The wound bed before death before he could arrive.

RESIDENTIAL SEGREGATION GROWS IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9.

Over six hundred white property owners have been denied in the Columbia Heights Real Estate Association, which binds its members not to sell property in a certain neighborhood to Negroes for 21 years. The district which the segregation is aimed is in Columbia Heights bounded by Florida avenue and Shover street, between Georgia avenue and 16th street. A number of colored people live in this section of the city.

SEES DANGER IN NORDIC SUPERJORITY THEORY

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The attitude of members of certain racialist groups who are spreading the Nordic and to prove that Nordic stock is superior to all other stocks is an attack on the Nordic theory of the Nordic race. The Nordic race is superior to all other races, according to the theory of the Nordic race.

"As for the Nordic doctrine," he said, "it is a theological dogma in all history that has been so dangerous to the world. It is the Nordic doctrine that has been so dangerous to the world. It is the Nordic doctrine that has been so dangerous to the world."

PREDICTS PHILA WILL TAKE FIRST PLACE IN COLORED POPULATION

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 9.

It has been predicted by a Negro in Washington, welfare worker, on the basis of carefully prepared records of the colored population of the "Quaker City" will have the largest colored population of any city in the United States within a few years.

The welfare worker declared that Philadelphia's colored population jumped from 35,000 in 1910 to 100,000 in 1925. He pointed out that at the present time Negroes make 7.5 per cent of Philadelphia's total population, while in Chicago they form 4 per cent of the city's population and in New York 2.7 per cent. Mr. Washington stated that in spite of the rapid increase in the colored population of Philadelphia, of the 35,000 Negroes lived last year not one was constructed for Negroes.

$30,000 ESTATE LEFT BY AN AGED RECLUSE

DANVILLE, Ky., Dec. 9.

Kate Whelan, an aged colored recluse who died recently, left a fortune of $30,000 it has been learned. Mrs. Whelan was born in slavery some time before the Civil War, in Pennsylvania, and lived with her relatives. She has lived in seclusion for years in an old frame house of West Main street. Jerry Caldwell, president of the Farmers' National Bank and Trust Company, has charge of Mrs. Whelan's estate.

FOUR RACE BOYS TO GO ON Y. M. C. A. WORLD TOUR

World Friendship Tour Will Take In Eight Countries, Says Will Attend World "Y" Conference

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Four representatives of the Y. M. C. A. were elected for the Third World Friendship tour conducted by the Y. M. C. A. Forty boys from forty states will make the journey.

The Y. M. C. A. tour will be divided into two divisions, each of which will take care of twenty boys. The A-1 tour will start from New York June 26 and return September 1. Visits will be made to England, France, Germany, Denmark, Finland, and Sweden.

The second division will start from New York July 21 and return October 1. They will spend the winter in Europe. Three hundred boys under twenty will meet here to discuss world problems.

Selections for the trip are made through local Y. M. C. A.'s, which suggest names of boys between sixteen and nineteen years of age to the state conference, which in turn submits names to the National conference.

Unusual Printing Effects Without unusual cost

Many orders of Printing seeking such effects find our service a "Here's How."

From time to time you come across a mailing piece that stops you! You wish you could produce something equally striking and effective. But you feel that it would be too costly.

Yet sometimes you can achieve unusual printing effects—without undue cost. Often by special handling—on the right paper—your illustrations can be produced artistically and with full selling value at comparatively low cost.

The selection of the paper and the arrangement of the type are vitally important. The style of printing that helps tell the story of the bank's resources, may not be at all suitable to announce the opening of Milday's Hat Shoppe, nor is there any one style suitable to all occasions.

You can get help in planning your job by calling on us. We will furnish blank dummies and finished examples that will show you how your job will look.

This service is helping users of printing get disappointing results. It is at your command, and it can save you a lot of time, trouble and cold cash.
